

SAVE THE DATE:

5th Annual Developmental Disabilities Public Policy Conference in Sacramento, by The Arc and United Cerebral Palsy in California

When: Monday February 27th and Legislative Visits on Tuesday February 28th 2012.

Every year we host a public policy conference featuring legislators, lobbyist, advocates, policymakers, and other speakers who deal with issues impacting people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. Attendees include family members, self-advocates, direct support professionals, attorneys, and executive/professional staff from community agencies and regional centers.

Topics Covered: National Public Policy, State Budget Overview, Advocacy, Healthcare, New and Proposed Legislation, IHSS, Mental Health, LTSS and Olmstead Related Issues, Work, Education, Trusts, Conservatorship, Crime and Abuse of People with Disabilities, and more.

Where: 100 Capitol Mall, Embassy Suites Hotel, Sacramento, CA 916-326-5000. Register for hotel registration at: www.sacramento.embassysuites.com and use our group/convention code: ARZ (not ARC) or call 1-800-Embassy (8002-498-5237) and ask for The Arc California discount rate.

REGISTER NOW:

Conference Full Package (Conference, Lunch, Dinner Event): $170
Conference and Prevention Luncheon $130
Conference Only: $85
Special Event: IPP Training and Dinner: $50

Pay online at <http://www.thearca.org/55.html> through PayPal or send your check to The Arc California 1225 8th Street, Suite 350, Sacramento, CA 95815. Information: Gwen Lopez (916) 552-6619.